TWENTY THIRD SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME 4 September 22

“Letting Go to Letting God”

The narrow gate will not allow us to bring in any extra baggage. “Every one of you who does not renounce all his possessions, cannot be my DISCIPLE” (Luke 14:33).

“Whoever does not carry his own cross and follow after me cannot be my disciple.” (Luke 14:27).

We must beforehand have an honest assessment of our capacity and willingness to pay the cost of discipleship. Discipleship requires putting Jesus over and above our family, job, money, career, and even our life. Secondly, following Jesus requires that we bear our cross patiently. The cross is the KEY that opens the narrow door to GOD’S kingdom.

Life is a long and arduous journey to our eternal HOME. Carrying humungous loads on the road will surely slow us down and distract us from our goal. But is it possible for us to let go of the things that we hold on to for “sentimental” reasons.

A song by the Charismatic Renewal Movement beautifully expresses this: “I have decided to follow Jesus; no turning back....” We find the invitation and the commandment- ‘Come and Follow me, Go and PROCLAIM the GOODNEWS’- in both our RESPONSE should be “Yes Lord!”

As we CELEBRATE the blessings of DADS this weekend, let us praise those fathers who have striven to balance the demands of work, marriage, and children with an honest awareness of both joy and sacrifice.

Let us not forget those people who have “fathered” us in their role as mentors and guides. We continue to pray that all their SACRIFICES for their children and families may bring lots of blessings in our world today.

May our Good God continue to strengthen us through our great fathers!

Happy Father’s Day to all the Fathers out there!

Blessings and Prayers Noyichan M.CBS.

Responsorial Psalm: Twenty Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

SACRAMENTAL JOURNEY - CONFIRMATION

Please continue to pray for all the children preparing for Confirmation.

The children are very interested in how we “live” our Catholic faith. Father Noy has been talking to them about the seven GIFTS of the HOLY SPIRIT which we know are wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord.

Catholics believe that we receive these seven gifts at Baptism, and that they are strengthened at Confirmation so that one can proclaim the truths of the faith.

The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit are listed in Isaiah 11:2-3. They are present in their fullness in Jesus Christ but are found in all Christians who are in a state of grace.

We receive them when we are filled with sanctifying grace, the life of God within us — as, for example, when we receive a sacrament worthily. As the current Catechism of the Catholic Church notes, “They complete and perfect the virtues of those who receive them.” Filled with His gifts, we respond to the promptings of the Holy Spirit as if by instinct, the way Christ Himself would. In this way, we can then “live” our faith and witness to the power of God in our lives.

Wishing all our amazing Dads a Happy Father's Day!

Heavenly Father,

you entrusted your Son Jesus, the child of Mary,
to the care of Joseph, an earthly father.

Bless all fathers as they care for their families.

Give them strength and wisdom, tenderness and patience;
support them in the work they have to do,
protecting those who look to them,
as we look to you for love and salvation,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

“SOMETHING BEAUTIFUL” Women’s Retreat – Sunday 16th October

Have you ever felt that life is more like a battle than a picnic?

In fact, Jesus doesn't promise that we won't have trials and challenges; instead His words prepare us to face those battles, to fight with all our heart and mind, and to find rest in Him at the end of the day.

In any battle, we need to put on the full armour of Christ – this year our “Something Beautiful” women's retreat will help you be prepared and strengthened for the days ahead.

“Sometimes the STRONGEST people are those who LOVE beyond all measure, cry when no one can see and fight BATTLES that only GOD knows about.”

Come and put on the FULL ARMOUR of GOD – $30 includes lunch and morning tea. Registrations now available.

If you are experiencing financial hardship, please contact Father Noy or Chris at the Parish Office as we want all the ladies in our community to come along and experience something beautiful.

Also if you are in a position to sponsor someone, please contact the office.

BECOMING CATHOLIC ... a wonderful journey of faith

Do you know someone who ...

Is baptised in another Christian faith ... but would like to become Catholic?

Was baptised Catholic as a child, but never received the other Sacraments of Initiation of Confirmation and Eucharist?

Towards the end of this year, we will be commencing Crossroads RCIA, a journey specifically designed for young people (ages 9 to 16) who wish to explore and develop their faith with a view to receiving the Sacraments of Initiation. This resource accompanies the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. The goal for this journey is a conversion of heart that leads each person into a deeper relationship with our loving God to develop a living faith.

The sessions will invite young people to enter into this journey of conversion and faith by developing a relationship with Christ, as the Spirit opens their minds and hearts. Please contact the Parish office for more information.
